Welcome from the Chair

---

As the newly elected Chair it is my great pleasure to welcome you to the first concert of our 2019/2020 season. Tonight we are performing contemporary choral works written between 2004 and 2014.

I have sung in the soprano section of the Chiltern Choir for eighteen years. I am a great believer in the power of singing together and the benefits that belonging to a choir can bring. Being part of the choir has given me opportunities to learn more about music, travel to different places and to sing in venues that I would never have imagined. Our 2019 tour to Slovakia and Austria with a concert in St Stephens Cathedral in Vienna was a recent highlight. I am looking forward to the opportunities that being Chair will bring, working with our excellent Musical Director, Michael Cayton.

We have enjoyed rehearsing these diverse and captivating pieces of music. I hope we can communicate that to you in our performance. Your support in attending our concert is much appreciated and I hope you will be inspired to attend our future concerts, bringing family and friends. We have an excellent season ahead of us (see the back cover for more details).

Can I also ask you to 'save the date' for a special event on the evening of 7th June 2020 when Michael Cayton will be performing Bach's Goldberg Variations at The Clarendon Muse, Watford. More details will follow via choir members, our website and Facebook page. We are very honoured that Michael has chosen to perform this challenging work for us as part of his birthday celebrations and look forward to an exciting performance. Please join us if you can.

This I say to you,
if two of you are put,
are put in accord here in,

Because where two or three are gathered in my name,
there am I,
in the midst of them.

Stabat Mater

1 Stabat Mater

*Stabat mater dolorosa
juxta Crucem lacrimosa, dum pendebat Filius.*

Cecilia McDowall (born 1951)

The Mother of sorrows stood in tears beside the cross
on which her son was hanging.

*Cuius animam gementem,
contristatam et dolentem
pertransivit gladius.*

*O quam tristis et afflicta
fuit illa benedicta, mater Unigeniti!*

*Quae mærebat et dolebat,
pia Mater, dum videbat
nati pænas inclyti.*

Her grieving heart,
anguished and lamenting,
was pierced by a sword.

O how sad and afflicted
was the blessed Mother of the Only-begotten!

She mourned and grieved,
the gentle Mother, as she beheld
the sufferings of her glorious Son.

2 Quis est homo qui non fleret?

*Quis est homo qui non fleret,
matrem Christi si videret
in tanto supplicio?*

*Quis non posset contristari
Christi Matrem contemplari dolentem cum Filio?*

What man would not weep
if he saw the Mother of Christ
in such torment?

Who could not feel compassion
on beholding the gentle Mother grieving for her Son?

3 Pro peccatis suae gentis

*Pro peccatis suæ gentis
vidit Iesum in tormentis,
et flagellis subdolum.*

*Vidit suum dulcem Natum
moriendo desolatum,
dum emisit spiritum.*

(soloist Richard Watson)

For the sins of his people
she saw Jesus in torment,
submitting to the scourge.

She saw her own sweet Son
dying in desolation,
as he yielded up his spirit.

4 Eia Mater, fons amoris

*Eia, Mater, fons amoris
me sentire vim doloris
fac, ut tecum lugeam.*

*Fac, ut ardeat cor meum
in amando Christum Deum
ut sibi complaceam.*

(sung by the Chiltern Singers' ladies)

Ah Mother, fount of love, let me feel the force of your grief
that I may mourn with you.

Make my heart burn
with the love for Christ, my God,
so that I may please him.

5 Sancta Mater

*Sancta Mater, istud agas, crucifixi fige plagas
cordi meo valide.*

(soloist Richard Watson)

Holy Mother, do this for me:
imprint the wounds of your crucified Son
deeply in my heart.

*Tui Nati vulnerati,
tam dignati pro me pati,
pœnas mecum divide.*

*Fac me tecum pie flere,
crucifixo condolere,
donec ego vixero.*

*Juxta Crucem tecum stare,
et me tibi sociare
in planctu desidero.*

6 Virgo virginum præclara

*Virgo virginum præclara,
mihi iam non sis amara,
fac me tecum plangere.*

*Fac, ut portem Christi mortem,
passionis fac consortem,
et plagas recolare.*

*Fac me plagis vulnerari,
fac me Cruce inebriari,
et cruore Filii.*

7 Inflammatus et accensus

*Inflammatus et accensus,
per te, Virgo, sim defensus
in die judicii.*

*Fac me cruce custodiri,
morte Christi præmuniri,
confoveri gratia.*

*Quando corpus morietur,
fac, ut animæ donetur paradisi gloria.*

Amen.

Share with me the agony
of your wounded Son
who deigned to suffer so much for me.

Make me truly weep with you and share the suffering of the crucified
for as long as I shall live.

To stand beside the cross with you and join you in your weeping,
this is my wish.

O Virgin, peerless among virgins,
do not turn away from me,
let me weep with you.

Let me bear Christ's death,
let me share his passion,
enduring his wounds.

Let me suffer his pain,
let me be engulfed by the cross,
for the love of your Son.

When I am consumed with flames,
O Virgin, let me be defended by you on the day of judgment.

Let me be guarded by the cross,
that I may be strengthened by Christ's death
and cherished by his grace.

When my body dies,
let my soul receive
the glory of heaven.

Amen.

1 Requiem

Requiem æternam dona eis, Domine: Et lux perpetua luceat eis.

Rest eternal grant unto them, O Lord:
and let perpetual light shine upon them.

2 Precious Moment

A gift so pure, life so precious,
gifted to me.
Touched by your love, I am awakened
in this precious moment of peace.
Wild is the storm surrounding me,
but here love drives out the cold.
Precious gift, gift of forgiveness,
precious moment of peace.

I am alone, but you hold me closely to you.
Your endless love is my protection
in the precious moment of peace.
Fear within and fear without,
but you are the light in my dark.
Precious gift, gift of forgiveness,
precious gift of peace.

Will Todd

And this love is endless, endless moment of peace.

3 Just as I am

Melody: Arthur Henry Brown (1830-1926), arranged by Will Todd Words: Charlotte Elliot (1789-1871)

Just as I am, Thy love unknown
Hath broken every barrier down;
Now to be Thine, yea, Thine alone,
O Lamb of God, I come.

Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind;
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come

4 Ave verum

*Ave verum corpus, natum
de Maria Virgine,
vere passum, immolatum
in cruce pro homine
cuius latus perforatum
fluxit aqua et sanguine:
esto nobis prægustatum
in mortis examine.*

*O Jesu dulcis, O Jesu pie,
O Jesu, fili Mariæ.
Miserere mei.*

Hail, true Body, born
of the Virgin Mary,
having truly suffered, sacrificed
on the cross for mankind,
from whose pierced side
water and blood flowed:
Be for us a foretaste
in the trial of death.

O sweet Jesus, O holy Jesus,
O Jesus, son of Mary,
have mercy on me.

5 A Song of Peace

Will Todd

Even though your eyes are closed,
I will sing this song to you.
This is a song of peace, a song of love endless in beauty,
an endless song for love remembered.
O may I sing to you of memories so cherished and sustaining.
And though you have left me,
in my heart there is an everlasting light and a song of peace.

6 Into the Stars

Will Todd

Peace.
Look into the stars.
They are eternal.
Light across the heavens.
Love, reach into the stars:
You are eternal.

Programme Notes

---

Tonight we present a programme of works, mainly composed by living British Composers. Jonathan Dove is a composer of opera, choral works, plays, films, and orchestral and chamber music. Born in London he studied music at Cambridge and worked for many years as a Repetiteur for Glyndbourne Opera. He has composed a number of operas including his hugely successful Flight based on a group of people trapped in an airport for 24 hours. The Missa brevis was commissioned by the Cathedral Organists' Association for their conference in Wells Cathedral in May 2009 and first performed by the cathedral choir. There were various stipulations which Dove was required to address: the music should be challenging, but not be out of the reach of a good church choir; it should be interesting but accessible; it should be economical in its proportions; and it should be in Latin accompanied by organ. At the first performance it was immediately recognized that Dove had judged the work perfectly.

Cecilia McDowall was also born in London and has been eight times short-listed for the British Composer Awards. In 2014 she won the British Composer Award for Choral Music. Much of McDowall's choral music is performed worldwide, as well as her orchestral music. McDowall's setting of the Stabat Mater has been described as "an outstanding work of great solemnity and poignancy". The work comprises seven movements in a symmetrical structure – from the impassioned choral opening, through two intense yet diverse baritone solos and contemplative plainchant chorales, to the stately finale uniting all the voices. The optimistic central movement, in a major tonality, is performed by members of the Chiltern Singers. A plaintive meditation on the sorrows of the Virgin Mary as she stands by the Cross, McDowall's Stabat Mater is a sophisticated modern alternative to more well-known settings.

Bob Chilcott was born in Plymouth. He sang in the Choir of King's College, Cambridge, both as a boy and as a university student. Chilcott has always loved jazz and at the beginning of his composing career, he worked as an arranger for the BBC Radio Orchestra. While a member of the King's Singers, he performed with artists such as George Shearing, Richard Rodney Bennett, John Dankworth, Art Farmer and the WDR Big Band. These experiences and influences have had a major impact on the music he composes. Chilcott's jazz influences truly come to the fore in A Little Jazz Mass: The Kyrie has real groove, the Gloria swings, the Sanctus sits right back, the Benedictus hums along, and the Agnus Dei draws inspiration from the Blues. The voices are underpinned by a characterful piano accompaniment.

This highly effective setting of the Latin Missa brevis – which is available in arrangements for both upper voice and mixed voice choirs – is one of Chilcott's most celebrated and popular choral works to date, and has received countless performances (both on the concert platform and as part of the sung liturgy in church services) across the world, perhaps most notably at St Paul's Cathedral, London.

Will Todd was born in County Durham, attended Durham School and joined the choir of St Oswald's Church, Durham. He went on to study music at the University of Bristol. He is an accomplished jazz pianist and regularly performs with his trio, and this played a large role in one of his most famous works, his Mass in Blue (which the Chiltern Choir sang, with Will's trio, in 2014). Songs of Peace is not a conventional Requiem, but it is a piece about love and loss. Perhaps for that reason it might be appropriate in a memorial context, but should be by no means confined to it: in many ways it is a very 'life-affirming' work. It is also designed as a work, which may be performed complete, or as separate movements, or as a selection.

Will writes:

"The overall structure gradually made sense as I worked on individual movements, and I didn't originally set out to write a six-movement piece. But these various choral songs seem to work very well together and share a certain atmosphere. The themes are peace, eternity, love. It is a work in which I remember my mother, Iris Todd, for all the wonderful things she gave me, especially a lifelong interest in choral music and worship. She adored the 'Ave Verum' text which I set in the fourth movement, and also the hymn 'Just as I am', which she always said she would like at her funeral, and indeed this arrangement in a solo piano version was what I played on that occasion. The voices feel like a natural addition. There is a carol for the second movement, and a soft, ethereal 'In paradisum' section at the end, entitled 'Into the Stars'. The first movement is the opening section of the Requiem Mass, and the 'Song of Peace' (movement 5), like the second movement, is a setting of my own text."

Michael Cayton, Conductor

Conductor Michael Cayton has been Director Music at the Chiltern Choir, one of Hertfordshire's finest choral societies since 2003. During his time with the choir he has conducted performances of repertoire from Bach to Maxwell-Davies, Purcell to Eric Whitacre. Recent performances have included a joint concert with Watford Philharmonic of Karl Jenkins' The Armed Man and a stunning performance of Monteverdi's Vespers.

Michael has also been Musical Director of Watford Philharmonic Society since 2014 following his debut in an exhilarating performance of Britten's War Requiem. Since then he has led both choir and orchestra in a wide variety of works, such as Puccini's Messe di Gloria, Britten's Sea Interludes, Bliss Morning Heroes, Bach's B Minor Mass and Beethoven's infamous Ninth Symphony. Meanwhile, the orchestra having completed a full cycle of workshops on Beethoven's Symphonies is now well into a new series on the symphonies of Franz Schubert with the most recent workshop, earlier this year, on the Sixth Symphony.

Conducting engagements this year have included Bryan Kessleman's Zimbabwe Suite with the Tonic choir at Harrow Arts Centre.

Michael has also been the Director of Music at St John's Wood Church in London since 2003, where he conducts both the critically acclaimed professional choir and the successful community Chamber Choir.

Ian Shaw, Accompanist

Ian Shaw studied at Cambridge (where he was Organ Scholar of St John's College and a John Stewart of Rannoch Scholar in Sacred Music), at the Sweelinck Conservatorium in Amsterdam and (more recently, as a mature student) in the drama department of Goldsmiths College in London.

He has been Sub-Organist at Durham Cathedral and Director of Music at St Peter's Eaton Square. Subsequently, he has worked as a pianist with English National Opera, Opera North, Northern Ballet Theatre, BBC Scottish Symphony Orchestra and, for eleven years, Scottish Opera, where he was responsible for numerous tours of the Highlands and Islands, once including Bermuda.

Since returning to London, he has continued to work as a freelance répétiteur, especially for Scottish Opera, Music Theatre Wales and Nederlandse Reisopera, and often in contemporary repertoire. He has been involved in a number of world premieres in UK and abroad, including The Trial (Philip Glass), Anthropocene (Stuart MacRae), Jab Molassie (Dominique Le Gendre, in Trinidad) and Deniz Kustu (Michal Ellison, in Istanbul). He has also coached young singers and pianists at the National Opera Studio and British Youth Opera and played with London choirs, including the BBC Singers, the Bach Choir and, on many occasions, the Chiltern Choir.

His work has been described as 'redoubtable' by The Scotsman and 'sometimes amusing' by the Dean of Durham.
